

The pressed duck

Ellinor Aurora Aasgaard & Ana-Maria Hadji-Culea
23 – 25 November 2012

Due to the pending makeover of Berlin Carré, small businesses – all current shops except for Kaiser's and McDonald's - are closing. The corridors will be narrower. By raising the rent, fewer but more profitable chain stores will replace the many small shops. Some shopkeepers believe that a parking house will be built, most don't know. We cast a Hotel Adlon umbrella as Tabatha from the makeover show "Tabatha Takes Over". In this subgenre of reality TV a professional is called into a desperate situation, viewers see a personal confession made by the subjects, and then a magical transformation is revealed.
